"Micks" Say It's Not So.

Dublin, Ireland, Sept. 25.—The charge that the Irish regiments, and particularly the Dublin Fusiliers, are being filled up from reserves of Englishmen and Scotsmen, is repudiated by the colonel lately commanding the Dublin Fusiliers Battalion recruited from the commercial young men.
There are, he says, not twenty men in the battalion who are not Irish, and these had come in because they had Irish friends in it.

Irishmen who had been serving in English regiments had applied for transfer to the Dublins, and this may have given rise to the charge. Some English regiments have been recruited almost entirely from the Irish in England, notably the Tyneside Irish which was officially called the Northumberland Fusiliers, in the lists as the 18th London regiment. The casuality lists of Scottish Highland regiments show a large proportion of Irish names.

Treated Thousands of Civilians.

Paris, Sept. 26.—British surgeons have treated 16,000 cases and performed 463 operations on civilian patients in the zones of their armies in France since the beginning of the war. They had not only to treat all the current ills of the region but were required to combat the epidemics that followed war. All the inhabitants of the British zone were vaccinated against typhoid and special hospitals were created for children.

A considerable number of civilians wounded by shell fire also require their attention.

Fort Worth Votes "Wet."

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 26.—The local option election in Tarrant county today resulted in an estimated majority for the "wets" of approximately 1,400. A majority of the county boxes went dry, but Fort Worth piled up a big "wet" vote. This accounts for a total of 9,473 votes. There are but approximately 18,000 votes in the county. It is not believed that more than 12,000 votes were cast. Up to 8 o'clock 7,140 votes had been accounted for. Of this number the anti received 4,748 and the pros 2,492. The county vote reported was 785 pro and 448 anti.
